RESPONSE

Sir:

In the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment of September 16, 2004, it is contended that pages 4-8 of the Amendment submitted on August 25, 2004 were missing. Having reviewed our records, it appears that such missing pages were a result of a Patent & Trademark Office (PTO) error, possibly a fax equipment error or a clerical error in dealing with the received papers. Attached is the "Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission" sent to us by the PTO upon receipt of our faxed amendment papers. Such notice shows that all 31 of the 31 pages sent were, in fact, received by the Patent & Trademark Office.

In order to assist in curing the problem of missing pages, the undersigned resubmits, by mail, the entire amendment, including pages of 4-8 which the PTO indicates are missing.

Applicant believes that no fees are due.
